Sam Small Talks.

The Rev. Sam Small, of "Old Si" fame as a journalist, but who for a number of years has been an evangelist, occupied the pulpit last night at Foundry M. E. Church. He spoke of his fifteen years rebellion against God, of its sad results to him, and of the improvement in his condition which had followed his reformation. Men were in the habit of complaining against God, but they are themselves to blame. On the subject of the liquor traffic Mr. Small said: "If God ever had an enemy outside of Old Splitfoot himself, he never had a worse one than the liquor traffic." He demanded that the Chicago World's Fair should be closed on Sunday. "It is," said he, "a national and not a Chicago fair." In referring to the colored man the speaker said: "I believe in giving every colored man the right to vote and in protecting him in its exercise to the full strength of the Government." He also wanted to see the people of the District of Columbia enfranchised. The church was crowded to overtlowing. as a journalist, but who for a number of

Due to Spite-Work. Maxwell Payne occupied a cell at Lieu-tenant Kelly's station on Saturday afternoon. He is a colored man who has herenoon. He is a colored man who has here-tofore had a good reputation. The charge against him was that of having attempted a criminal assault upon Lizzie Ford, an Syear-old colored girl Payne maintained his innocence and asserted that his arrest was due to spite-work on the part of the girl's mother. LOCAL TALKS.

A Driver Has a Narrow Escape From Being Instantly Killed. What Persons, Prominent and Other-wise, Find to Interest Them. John Roati, who drives a delivery wagon for C. C. Carroll, had a narrow escape from instant death at the crossing of the Balti-Major Moore—I think this is a very much healthier winter than was experienced in Washington last winter. The reports from the health office show a very decided improvement, and there is a marked decrease in the percentage of nearly all diseases. One year ago this month every body was suffering from the 'grip,' and the Metropolitan police force was very nearly demoralized. For months the number of people sick upon the force came very nearly averaging forty a day, and frequently went up as high as fifty and fifty-five. The department is at the present time in a comparatively healthy cendition, and according to the reports the sick list will not average more than thrity-five a day. Some of the officers have had to pass through the 'grip' for the secend time and a few are suffering at the present time, but not very seriously. Frank B. Morgan—I just returned last night from a business trip through the Southern States and I was very much surprised to find how active business was. Naturally all of the merchants anticipate trade to be a little more prosperous during the past two months. Here in Washington there is every evidence of a good winter's trade, and the merchants feel just as much encouraged as in the other Southern cities. I transacted more business through Virginia and South Carolina than on any business trip I have made through that section in two years. Collections come in promptly, and I collected many debts that have been outstanding for some time. Dr. Hunter—What do I think of Dr. Koch's lymph cure for consumption? For all diseases I favor oxygen and in cases of jneumonia, when the tendency is to grow worse on account of non-oxidization of the blood, I would administer pure oxygen gas, as it instantly relieves that trouble and distressing headache that arises from the wmprime. To cure a disease you must have pure air and enough vitality still left to combat the disease. On that theory consumption can be cured. There is one thing I would like the world to know, and physicians especially, and that is if t Instant death at the crossing of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad, near Third and K streets, this morning. The wagon Rean was driving was struck by an engine driven by Engineer Cloveland and completely demolished and Roan thrown twenty-five or thirty feet from the track. Poveiven for Her Offense. A beautiful, brown haired, hazel eyed, girl, not more than 17 years of age, was the ole inmate of the prisoner's room at Police sole inmate of the prisoner's room at Police Headquarters last night. She came to Washington from a Maryland village and secured employment in one of the large stores of the city. She proved a valuable clerk, but Saturday she was tempted, and fell. An opportunity pre-ented itself, and she stole a small sum of money, in which she was quickly defected, and the proprietor had her arrested. The poor girl confessed her guilt, said it was her first offense, and begged for forgiveness. The rich proprietor showed no pity, and it was not until the girl's father had been telegraphed for and arrived in the city that he relented and agreed not to prosecute.

Puring the proceedings a reception was given Mrs. General Custer. Evangelization of France sity of Paris occupied the pulpit of Dr. Sunderland's church yesterday morning Sunderland's church yesterday morning and preached on the present attitude of the French people with respect to Protest ant and Roman Catholic religion. He wanted to enlist the American people in the work of ridding France of Infidelity and superstition. The pure religion of Christ was what is needed. France is a Roman Catholic nation and ought to be evangelized. The time had come to remove the yoke of bondage from the people.

Building inspector Entwisle—Yes, there has been a dropping off in the granting of building permits for the past week or two and I attribute it to two causes—the panic, or rather the stringency in the money market, and the cold weather. There is not much building done in cold weather. No, the squeeze in money matters did not cause a suspension of work upon buildings already in course of construction, but it did prevent persons from applying for permits who had in contemplation the erection of buildings.

Mr. Robert Burkholder—I occasionally hear some fellow abusing Washington and wishing he had never seen the place. As for my part, I had rather live in poverty here than in baronial style anywhere else. There is more solid enjoyment here to the square foot than any place I ever lived, and I have ambled around no little.

Mr. Wm. M. Wright—The old soldiers may be dying off, but the pension business a growing larger and heavier every day. If it keeps on the Lord only knows where it will stop.

Inspector Swindells—The robbery yesterday of the bonds and jewelry from Mrs. Gay was the largest which has taken place here in some time. I am satisfied it was not the work of professionals, and, by the way, it is wonderful how crooks steer clear of Washington. When one strikes here he does not tarry long. They seem to regard Washington as an unhealthy place for them. It is a good place for them to work, however, as our streets are so wide they are not so easily spotted. It is not like a crowded city, where you come into contact so closely with people on the pavements that you cannot help but notice them. There are emulsions and cambions, and there is still much skimmed milk which masquerades as cream. Try as they will many manufacturers cannot so disguise their coaliter oil as to make it palatable to sensitive atomachs. Scott's Emulsion of PURE NOILYEGIAN COD LIVER OIL, combined with Hypophosphics is almost as palatable as milk. For this reason as well as for the fact of the stimulating qualities of the Hypophosphites, Physicians frequently prescribe it in cases of Dr. Newman's Interesting Sermon.

Dr. Newman outlined the life of Peter Waldo, the founder of the Waldensean religion, and described the wonderful work of reformation performed by him. The zeal with which Waldo consecrated himself to religious work and the manner in which he crossed the Alps with a little band of followers and regained the land from which he had been banished were elequently set forth by Dr. Newman. Luther owed much to Waldo, and to-day the Waldensean Church is one of the hopes of Italy.
